FORT LAUDERDALE

Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog proudly announces the opening of its new office in Fort Lauderdale. As the South Florida economy continues to evolve, this expansion into Fort Lauderdale allows us to focus on serving our clients in Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

Grace E. Robson leads the Fort Lauderdale office. Ms. Robson possesses more than a decade of experience representing corporate debtors, trade and institutional creditors, bankruptcy trustees and other fiduciaries, state court receivers, as well as creditors' committees in the areas of corporate restructuring, bankruptcy, debtor-creditor relations and related litigation.

While Ms. Robson concentrates on the firm's bankruptcy-related practice, the firm continues to offer its full range of legal services in both Miami and Fort Lauderdale. To that end, Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog is a multidisciplinary civil practice law firm specializing in the representation of businesses, institutions and individuals in bankruptcy and reorganizations, creditor and debtor rights, complex commercial and civil litigation, probate and guardianship, elder law, trusts and estates, real estate law, and mediation-arbitration services.

The Fort Lauderdale office is located at Tower 101, 101 NE Third Avenue, Suite 1210, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 directly north of the U.S. District and U.S. Bankruptcy Courthouse. The telephone number is 954.767.0030 and the fax number is 954.767.0035. Ms. Robson may be reached at grbson@mrthlaw.com.

Dedication to clients and service to the community are the principles upon which Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog was founded more than 30 years ago, and upon which it still operates today. If you are looking for attorneys who are committed to their clients, who share client goals and objectives, and who strive to be counselors, advisors, and problem solvers, please contact us.
