Joe Davis Selected as Miami-Dade County Court Judge

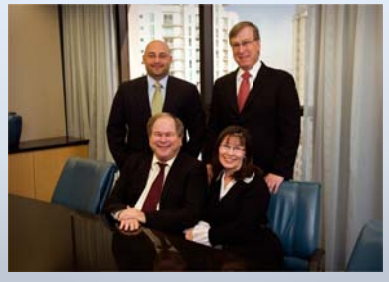
Congratulations to our colleague, mentor and friend Joe Davis, who was appointed at the end of August by Governor Charlie Christ to replace Miami-Dade Circuit Judge Jose L. Fernandez. A co-founder of the firm, Joe began practicing law in 1973, focusing his practice on commercial litigation. "Becoming a judge is an opportunity for me to give back to the community and do something else with my legal skills," said Davis. We wish Joe and his wife Helena much success in this new chapter of his life, and thank him for all of his contributions to the firm over the last 30 years—he will surely be missed.

Firm Web Site and Email

The new Web site address for Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog is www.mrthlaw.com. Attorneys and staff email addresses have also changed to reflect the new site. The old email addresses will be automatically forwarded.

Miami Office Gets New Look

At the end of September, Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog moved its office to Suite 1800 in the same building at 9130 S. Dadeland Blvd. in downtown Dadeland. The new state of the art office space is Wi-Fi ready and allows clients to access the Internet and print important documents from the lobby or conference rooms.

Firm Name Changes


The firm is pleased to announce that effective immediately, the name of the firm has changed to Markowitz Ringel Trusty + Hartog to reflect Partner Joe Davis leaving the firm and to recognize the accomplishments of Partner Ross R. Hartog. Hartog, who joined the firm in 2002, concentrates his practice on bankruptcy, business reorganization, insolvency, creditors' rights, receiverships, liquidations, and complex commercial litigation.
