

Adrian Delancy concentrates his practice in bankruptcy and commercial litigation. Adrian has represented a variety of court-appointed fiduciaries, including trustees, receivers, and assignees for the benefit of creditors, in both state and federal court. He has also represented secured creditors and other interested parties. Adrian has handled all facets of contested matters, adversary proceedings, and complex business cases from the initial client interview, through trial and appeals.

Representative Matters

- Prosecuted fraudulent transfer claims on behalf of a bankruptcy trustee against a large Las Vegas casino chain for the recovery of estate assets gambled away by the debtor.
- Represented a secured creditor in its efforts to recover a 300-foot cargo vessel from chapter 11 debtor that allowed the ship to be kidnapped by pirates/gunmen in Haiti.
- Defended a prominent local physician against a chapter 7 trustee's avoidance action seeking to recover over $1 million dollars related to a medical start-up company.
- Represented trustee in "claw-back" action against local attorney who improperly funneled real estate commissions to himself and away from the debtor-brokerage.
- Represent bankruptcy trustee in $1.2 million dollar litigation to recovery business assets from prominent real estate developer who controlled/owned the debtor.
- Represent bankruptcy trustee in litigation to recover the debtor's ownership interest in a well-known South Florida kosher supermarket and bakery.
